

Quick Facts

A Few Changes

1. Original compositions will be judged on Saturday, March 12th, at Meredith during the audition day. Students and teachers will receive their packets the same as before.
2. Only one deadline: January 7th....but, out of courtesy, if you want to complete your packet by the December meeting, we will take it. However, it will be considered complete and final.
3. There may be a need for 3 honors recitals this year.

If you have question, please ask Ruth Hafley for best response time. I'm not opposed to you contacting me but please try email rather than phone calls. Ruth will be able to filter pertinent information. Please know that we cannot honor the following questions:

DO NOT call or write to ask for a different time for your student.

DO NOT call or write asking to change the listed repertoire you turned in.

NEVER give the above information to parents or students.

DO call or write if you have any other questions.

Thank you
